INTERVIEW

REMOVE

Screen, Your Way.

Maximize your efficiency with a custom questionnaire to filter initial responses, screen resumé of candidates who have reserved a time slot in your event, or setup your event with shorter interview durations and extend the interview on the fly! Have something else in mind? Let's talk!

Schedule Faster.

Spothook's branded event pages provide the opportunity to enhance your brand, describe the position available, and set a schedule for interviewing applicants. Setting up an event page takes less than 5 minutes. Once created, applicants reserve a convenient time slot.

Interview Conveniently.

Spathook's live video interviewing platform provides companies the opportunity to meet virtually to test an applicant's qualifications or for an in-depth discussion about the company and position. The platform provides value-added features to both the recruiter and applicant while enhancing your company's brand.

Evaluate Confidently.

Spothook provides a tracking system for recruiters that lists the applicants interviewed as well as the applicants scheduled for a future interview. Spothook stores and organizes applicant information for easy retrieval, review, and evaluation. The information includes applicant profiles, resumés, video interviews, notes taken, files shared and chat.

SEND

Share “Andy” Easier.

Spothook enhances reporting to hiring managers by providing an easy mechanism for sharing a complete file on each applicant with others in the organization. Recruiters are able to send an applicant's profile, resumé, video interview, any notes taken by the recruiter, any messages chatted and any files shared during the interview to the hiring manager or others involved.
